Re: Position Openings
City of Salisbury Historic District Commission
Salisbury, Maryland

Dear Mayor Ireton:

Pursuant to the press release date August 20, 2010, I would like to submit for appointment to the Historic District Commission.

Currently, I am employed as a Maryland Registered Architect at Becker Morgan Group, Inc., and as a LEED AP as recognized by the USGBC (United States Green Building Council).

This month I will turn 29 and have lived and worked in Salisbury since September 2004. My wife is a fourth grade math teacher at Pittsville Middle / Elementary School, and we purchased a house at 1101 Monitor Court, Salisbury, MD, 21801 (on Johnson's Pond near North Salisbury Elementary School). I was raised in a suburb of Philadelphia where I graduated from Abington High School. I attended the School of Architecture at Tulane University in New Orleans, Louisiana and graduated from there in 2004. Philadelphia and New Orleans are cities with strong historical identities which still exist today due to the efforts of their respective historical commissions.

I have been in contact with current commission member Rick Sanders, and I am excited for the opportunity to actively participate if appointed the commission.

Sincerely

Brenden D. Frederick, AIA, LEED AP
